Recovery Mentor

The Missouri Recovery Network (MRN) is happy to announce that through a grant received from the Missouri Foundation for Health, MRN will be training individuals to become Peer Mentors across the State of Missouri.

Peers helping Peers achieve their Goals

- Beginning in 2013 MRN will be hosting educational meetings in the five regions of Missouri, to educate individuals about becoming a Peer Mentor .
- In the Spring of 2013, MRN will start training individuals in the five regions to become Peer Mentors.
- All that attend the Peer Mentor training will receive the 39 hours needed to obtain credentialing through the Missouri Substance Abuse Professional Credentialing Board. All other domains must be met to obtain full credentialing.
- This training is open to all interested in helping others become healthy and well.
