

Agenda

Utilizing Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS) to Improve Data Collection Processes of the Epidemiological Workgroup

December 16, 2014

Facilitator

- Nicole Schoenborn, M.A., Training and Technical Assistance (T/TA) Specialist

Learning Objectives

Participants will:

- Define Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS)
- Explore the use of CLAS standards within the context of the Strategic Prevention Framework
- Align epidemiological and data collection processes with CLAS

Time	Item
12:30 pm	Welcome, Introductions, and Learning Objectives Susan Depue and Nicole Schoenborn
12:45 pm	Culture and Cultural Competence Nicole Schoenborn
1:15 pm	Behavioral Health Disparities and CLAS Standards Nicole Schoenborn
1:30 pm	Aligning Data Collection Processes within the SPF and CLAS Standards Nicole Schoenborn

Time	Item
2:30 pm	Wrap-up and Closing Susan Depue and Nicole Schoenborn