

Alcoholics Anonymous of St. Louis

Accessible to Individuals Who are D/deaf and Hard of Hearing

Need Help? Want to go to meeting? Interpreter there?

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other in order to solve their common problem, and help others to recover from alcoholism.

Available:

- AA literature is available on DVD translated with sign language. Most importantly are two foundational books:
 - Alcoholics "Anonymous" - Referred to by members as the Big Book of AA.
 - "12 Steps and 12 Traditions"
- Interpreted meeting
- And many more...

Alcoholics Anonymous is an international organization which was founded in 1935, and has saved and changed the lives of millions of people throughout the world. Alcoholism was previously thought to be an incurable and fatal illness. By working a 12 step recovery program, and with the fellowship and support gained at AA meetings, millions of men and women have been able to achieve long term sobriety "one day at a time".

More info?

Contact St. Louis Alcoholics Anonymous office at 314-647-3677 to find out more information. Information is also available at www.aastl.org. Our office staff is familiar with accepting calls via VRS (Video Relay Service).

Anonymity is the secret of our success. At each meeting, all members and guests are reminded that they are not authorized to reveal the name of anyone they may meet there without that person's expressed permission.