

Improving lives THROUGH supports and services
THAT FOSTER self-determination.

6/8/17

. Post-secondary Educational Opportunities Guide

With only about one-third of youth with Autism attending college in young adulthood, Autism Speaks has created a resource guide with post-secondary educational opportunities. The Guide is designed to help youth with Autism and their families explore the different options and learning environments that exist for youth after leaving high school. The guide and other transition related resources can be found on the Autism Speaks website at:

https://www.autismspeaks.org/family-services/tool-kits/postsecondary?utm_source=email&utm_medium=text-link&utm_campaign=espeaks

www.dmh.mo.gov/dd
573-751-4054

MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH