Champions of Employment—The Struggle for Employment During COVID-19: Personal Experiences of Individuals & Service Providers

January 13, 2021
9:00 a.m.

The Division of Developmental Disabilities is hosting a series of monthly webinars designed to engage Support Coordinators in thought-provoking exercises to help propel employment opportunities for individuals receiving services. These monthly webinars will be held the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 9:00-10:00.

This month's topic will focus on experiences during this pandemic. Hear examples of how the pandemic has affected individuals with disabilities wanting to work during this time, the agencies providing employment supports, and the job market.

Presenters: Sandy Keyser and Steven Taylor, Employment First Specialists with the Division of Developmental Disabilities

Targeted Audience: Support Coordinators and other interested individuals
