Emergency Broadband Benefit

The Emergency Broadband Benefit is an FCC program to help families and households struggling to afford internet service during the COVID-19 pandemic. This new benefit will connect eligible households to jobs, critical healthcare services, virtual classrooms, and so much more.

The Telehealth Resource Centers are available to assist with questions. For more information, including recorded technical assistance webinars, please visit the FCC-supported technical assistance provider Universal Service Administrative Company and visit the resources below.

Resources for the EBB Program:
- FCC’s EBB webpage
- Consumer FAQ for Emergency Broadband Benefit
- Fact sheet
- “Become an Outreach Partner”
- Universal Service Administrative Company Technical Assistance Webinars