Upcoming Webinar

Champions of Employment: Tips for Navigating Employment Supports
May 12, 2021
1:30 p.m.

The Division of Developmental Disabilities is hosting a series of monthly webinars designed to engage Support Coordinators in thought-provoking exercises to help propel employment opportunities for individuals receiving services. These monthly webinars are held the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 1:30-2:30.

This month's topic will center on waiver funded employment supports. The Division's Employment First Specialists will provide participants with an overview of the waiver funded employment services, focusing on tips for identifying potential candidates who would benefit from these services and strategies for getting requests for these services approved.

Facilitators: Sandy Keyser and Steven Taylor, Employment First Specialists with the Division of Developmental Disabilities

Target Audience: Support Coordinators and other interested individuals
