MOQO and You: Community Living and Social & Spirituality

The Division of Developmental Disabilities is distributing a series of MOQO and You Reports. These reports aim to inform and educate stakeholders about the Missouri Quality Outcomes (MOQO). These reports can be found on the Division's website.

The newest MOQO and You Report is on Community Living and Social and Spirituality. The report focuses on the right to make decisions related to home, community, and social activities. Resources and data related to Community Life and Social and Spirituality are given. Click to review the new report.

For questions about the report, please contact caitlin.bartley@dmh.mo.gov.
