1. New 988 Coloring Book – The Missouri Department of Mental Health has developed a 988 coloring book suitable for all ages to promote 988 as a resource during moments of crisis or emotional distress. This coloring book features mental wellness check-ins, messages of hope, and activities that promote mindfulness. This innovative resource has garnered attention from SAMHSA staff who have chosen to feature it at an upcoming Tribal Behavioral Health Summit. SAMHSA’s decision to showcase this coloring book at the national level underscores the importance of creative, accessible approaches to spreading awareness of behavioral health services such as 988.
2. New Behavioral Health and Intellectual/Developmental Disability (BHIDD) Learning Collaborative – Individuals with co-occurring BHIDD require integrated care and services to thrive in their communities. Newly developed BHIDD Virtual Learning Collaboratives were developed to address barriers or questions for behavioral health providers. These introductory training courses are for any clinical and/or administrative staff interested in better supporting people with BHIDD needs. These trainings aim to introduce the participants to essential topics important to recognizing various needs and how to reduce behavioral risk over time.
 - You can view previous virtual sessions at this Relias link.
 - There are two more upcoming virtual sessions: Tuesday, October 8, 2024 – SUD and IDD; and Wednesday, October 23, 2024 – Adapting Therapy with IDD Clients (including alternative therapies) Register here

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

1. New HUD Announces New Continuum of Care Funding – On Wednesday, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that it will provide more than $3.5 billion in competitive funding to homeless services organizations across the country for supportive services and housing programs for people experiencing homelessness. For the first time, HUD is issuing a two-year Continuum of Care (CoC) Program Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) as authorized by the consolidated Appropriations Act, 2024. Communities are only required to submit on CoC application that will be applicable for FY2024 and FY2025 funds. This change is expected to streamline the application process and significantly reduce the administrative burden on applicants. Read HUD’s Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) here and read about other changes to this year’s NOFO in a blog post here.

2. How to Improve Your Grant Writing Skills – In this program, there will be an overview of the federal agencies and private foundations that regularly offer funding and describe how to evaluate which grants to apply for. Descriptions of the different sections of a grant application and what content should be covered in each section will be described. Learn More
3. Grant Resources:

4. HHS Announces $27.5 Million in Funding Opportunities for Enhancing Women’s Behavioral Health – On Monday, July 8, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), through the SAMHSA announced notices of funding opportunities aimed at improving women’s behavioral health throughout the country. The grants total approximately $27.5 million. Additionally, SAMHSA announced nearly $1 million in grant awards for two grant recipients as a part of the Services Program for Residential Treatment for Pregnant and Postpartum Women. The Notices of Funding opportunities aim to support women’s behavioral health by expanding access to services and enhancing the capacity of providers to identify and address mental health and substance use challenges and gender-based violence. Available funding opportunities include $15 million for the Community-Based Maternal Behavioral Health Services Program (see below) and $12.5 million for the Women’s Behavioral Health Technical Assistance Center (applications due Tuesday, August 20, 2024).
5. SAMHSA Funding Opportunity: Community-Based Maternal Behavioral Health Services Program – This program aims to improve access to evidence-based, timely, and culturally relevant maternal mental health and substance use disorder (SUD) services by bolstering community referral pathways to ensure seamless transitions in care for pregnant people in the perinatal and postpartum periods who are at risk or have a mental health or SUD. Specifically, recipients must collaborate with pregnancy and post-partum healthcare organizations, refer people in need of mental health and SUD care to providers, and provide short-term mental health and SUD services to those unable to access care. SAMHSA will provide up to 6 awards of up to $500,000 per year, per award, for up to 5 years for total program funding of $15,000,000. Applications are due August 26, 2024. Additional details can be found in the program’s Notice of Funding Opportunity.
6. MO GME Grant Program to Expand Residency Slots – The Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) the Missouri Graduate Medical Education First Program \(MO GME Grant Program\) application is now open for application submission. The purpose of this grant opportunity is to fund the expansion of residency slots at existing residency programs starting in June/July 2025 for the following specialties:
